

House Resolution No. 2471

Whereas, the union of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dayringer, cherished residents of Bolivar, Missouri, is characterized by their enduring affection and serves as a glorious illustration of a prosperous marriage; and

Whereas, Joe and Sarah Dayringer celebrated the truly remarkable occasion of their Seventy-second Wedding Anniversary on April 9, 2005, at the Leggett House in Carthage; and

Whereas, as they proudly marked this impressive milestone in their life, Joe and Sarah Dayringer undoubtedly looked back with satisfaction upon all that has transpired since they pledged their eternal love to one another and began their long, joyful walk down life's path; and

Whereas, it was seventy-two wondrous years ago that Joe Dayringer and Sarah Ruppert joined their hands, their hearts, and their lives together in a solemn nuptial ceremony on April 14, 1933, in Carthage; and

Whereas, over the course of the past seventy-two years, Joe and Sarah Dayringer have had the pleasure of raising five children and the privilege of spoiling sixteen grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren, all of whom have brought great pride and happiness into the lives of their loved ones; and

Whereas, Joe Dayringer provided a comfortable home and secure future for his loved ones through his successful twenty-seven-year endeavor with the Hercules Powder Plant, and as pastor of several area Baptist churches; and

Whereas, members of the First Baptist Church Joe and Sarah Dayringer moved to Carthage in 1968 to pastor churches in Seneca, Wheaton, Exeter, Reeds, Warren's Branch, and LaRussell; and

Whereas, Joe and Sarah Dayringer have distinguished themselves as an extraordinary couple, whose seventy-two years of shared joy and contentment so beautifully illustrate the strength, grace, and splendor of the lasting marriage bond:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Joe and Sarah Dayringer upon the wonderful and joyous occasion of their Seventy-second Wedding Anniversary and in further wishing them continued happiness in the years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. And Mrs. Joe Dayringer, as a measure of our tremendous esteem for them.

Offered by _____ Representative Mike Parson
District No. 133

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 2471, adopted April 25, 2005.

Rod Jetton, Speaker